

PARK HILL CHURCH

PARK HILL CHURCH

A YEAR IN THE NEW TESTAMENT AND PSALMS

Throughout 2023, our church will be engaging in a corporate reading of the New Testament together, using this journal as a guide. The order of daily scripture readings has been thoughtfully curated to encourage more depth and insight. The Gospels are spread throughout the year, and books and letters by the same author are presented together for consistency. The letters of Paul are also arranged in the order they were most likely written to highlight the apostle's development of thought. To end each week, Saturday offers a Sabbath psalm reading featuring passages with clear New Testament connections. There are no readings on Sundays, leaving plenty of room for participation in corporate worship gatherings.

Imagine if we all did this as a church—an entire year, feasting on the story of Jesus, who declared himself “the bread of life.” Imagine our character being primarily formed not by society's algorithms of outrage but by the non-anxious presence of Jesus. This is the opportunity we have before us.

So here's the simple invitation: We want to read through the New Testament and pray through the Psalms together in 2023—journaling through the text as family, wrestling with the same passages, asking questions and being drawn into a daily encounter with Jesus. Each day, we want to set aside our best time to immerse ourselves in the scriptures. When the alarm clock goes off, before we turn on our phones, get the email download, or check social media, we want to carve out space to breathe in the truth of what God says over us, letting his voice be the most formative voice in our lives. Rather than eating the bread of anxious toil as the Psalmist says, we want to eat the bread that truly satisfies. This is how we will become agents of kingdom renewal in the places we live, work, and spend our time.

May we become, as the Psalmist says, like a tree planted by streams of living water, sustained by the presence of God, providing shade for a weary city, and producing fruit that speaks of a better story.

HOW TO USE BREAD

BREAD is our modern take on Lectio Divina: an ancient approach of prayerfully engaging with the scriptures in order to hear God's personal word to you. Rather than racing through the text each day, we encourage you to be present to the Spirit in each movement of BREAD. What we seek is not simply information, or even motivation, but communion and union with God.

BREATHE: Find a place where you can encounter God. Be still. Ask him to fill the space, and then take a minute in silence. Focus on slowing your breathing down and calming your mind. Fix your eyes on Jesus and invite the Holy Spirit to guide your time.

READ: Read through the passage for the day. Read through the passage again, slowly. Look for one verse that stands out, grabs your attention, or interests you. Write out that verse in the "Read" section.

ENCOUNTER: Taking your chosen verse, begin to meditate on it. What comes to mind, and how does it make you feel? What do you think God is trying to reveal through this verse? Allow him to speak to your heart and mind. Write a short reflection on what you think God might be saying.

APPLY: Now, turn your focus outwards. Think about how you might be able to apply this to your day. Write down the one thing you're going to try and live out.

DEVOTE: Finally, close by writing a simple prayer of devotion to God. Ask God to fill you afresh, and commit your day to him.
